

Join or Renew your CARSE Membership in 2017 to Stay Connected

CARSE Membership Brochure

The Colorado Association of Road Supervisors and Engineers (CARSE) provides networking, training, and resources to Colorado transportation and road maintenance professionals.

Who can join?

County Engineers, Directors, Road Supervisors, Foreman, or any County staff employed full time in support of transportation or road maintenance.

When does CARSE meet?

We hold our annual meeting in December at the CCI Conference. There are vendors, technical sessions, networking, and votes on group business. Additionally in 2017 we plan to host informal skill and leadership sessions in different parts of the state. Join to find out more!

Can businesses join?

CARSE offers a business sustaining membership for transportation related companies that support our mission. Membership provides a variety of marketing and information sharing opportunities. See Sustaining Member brochure for more Information.

While Colorado road and transportation professionals have likely been meeting to share information since the early days of statehood, the formal CARSE organization started in 1980 to provide training and resources for county highway managers, engineers, foremen and equipment operators. The group also serves as the transportation and road maintenance technical advisor to Commissioner members of Colorado Counties, Inc. (CCI) and other industries. Join CARSE now and...

- Share the most current technical trends and research
- Find out about the latest in equipment and tools
- Participate in the email list-serve to get quick peer input on hot issues
- Find someone in CARSE who's already done it – don't reinvent the wheel.
- Build your leadership skills
- Get access to the members only website information
- Stay current on rules and regulations
- Meet and support your peers

CARSE is an affiliate of the National Association of County Engineers (NACE). NACE is the only national organization dedicated to advancing the engineering, management and professional standards of county public works officials and staff. Join NACE too and support our industry at the national level.
